Department of Economics Webinar Report

The Covid-19 pandemic has disrupted millions of lives across the counties and communities and negatively affected global economic growth and trade in 2020, which world never witnessed during last 100 years said by Dr.B.H. Nagoor, Professor and Chairman Dept of Studies and Research in Economic , Karnatak University Dharwad . while delivering a lecture at National Level webinar on “ Impact of Covid -19 on India's External Sector organised by Dept of Economics, KLE's. SVS Bellubbi Arts and Commerce College Saundatti. Further he said, virus reduced global economic output to -3.4% to -7.6%, and global trade has fallen by 5.3% in 2020. It is estimated that at least 3 to 4 years are required to bring normalcy in the Global economy. He suggested that extraordinary policies among the major countries of the world in a coordinated manner are needed to lift economies of the world from Covid Pandemic. The role of multilateral institutions such as WTO, UN and IMF is very important to bring major countries of the world to a common platform and avoid the countries taking unilateral decisions, which are affecting global economy. Prof vijaykumar Meeshi welcomed the guest. Dr. N.A. Koujageri introduced Resource Person Sri, Maruti . A. Dombar delivered presidential remark and vote of thanks proposed by Dr. Arundhati F. Badami.
